shadow of windows not like this but more like this blue means not sure - just my thoughts what about not making center based results, (like hladký) but what about applying GOLDEN RATIO <https://tympanus.net/codrops/2012/04/17/the-divine-proportion-and-web-design/> maybe not solid background but some random low poly you know what fuck all the layout conventions lets make this page consisting of random ractangles where some would include actual text and others would be just for decoration e.g. look at our big empty heading window I would maybe cut it to pieces dunno fuck this idea for now

Make search bar hower on top of the page same as the heading panel

Center align

Right align

sharp corners

Lets go balls deep with the color scheme ok maybe not, maybe different colorscheme, but dark mode looks good thou
